- “Prospecting” --finding the right funder for you
- Proposal writing tips and techniques
- Mobilizing your board to help raise funds with energy and enthusiasm
- Effective communication with board, prospects and funders, aimed at getting results
- What to do when you receive a grant
- Stewardship of grant funds

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, AND INCLUSION (EDI) 101 FOR NONPROFIT BOARDS

(5:00 – 7:45 pm)

Thursday, November 7. Room 139

Presenters: Jamal Jimerson & Esther Jean-Marie, Minority Inclusion Project

The EDI 101 for Nonprofit Boards serves as a starter session to introduce board members and nonprofit leaders to a framework for equity in the boardroom. This session will present information about the state of nonprofit diversity and why the topic matters, an overview of a process for advancing equity, diversity, and inclusion in the boardroom, and an opportunity to complete a board EDI self-assessment.

MISSION POSSIBLE: HOW TO START AND GROW A THRIVING NONPROFIT

(9:30 am – 12:30 pm)

Wednesday, November 13, 2019. Room: Conference Rm, 2nd flr.

Presenter: Roosevelt Smith, Roosevelt Smith Consulting

Follow your passion and dream of starting a nonprofit organization. This workshop will give you the confidence, conviction, knowhow and do-it-yourself tools, templates and references to start, run and grow a thriving nonprofit organization. In the workshop you will receive practical and specific how-to steps to set a strong foundation, from exploring your idea and effectively articulating your purpose and mission to attracting and building a board. You will also learn key fundamentals around budgeting, designing programs and raising funds for your mission-driven work.
